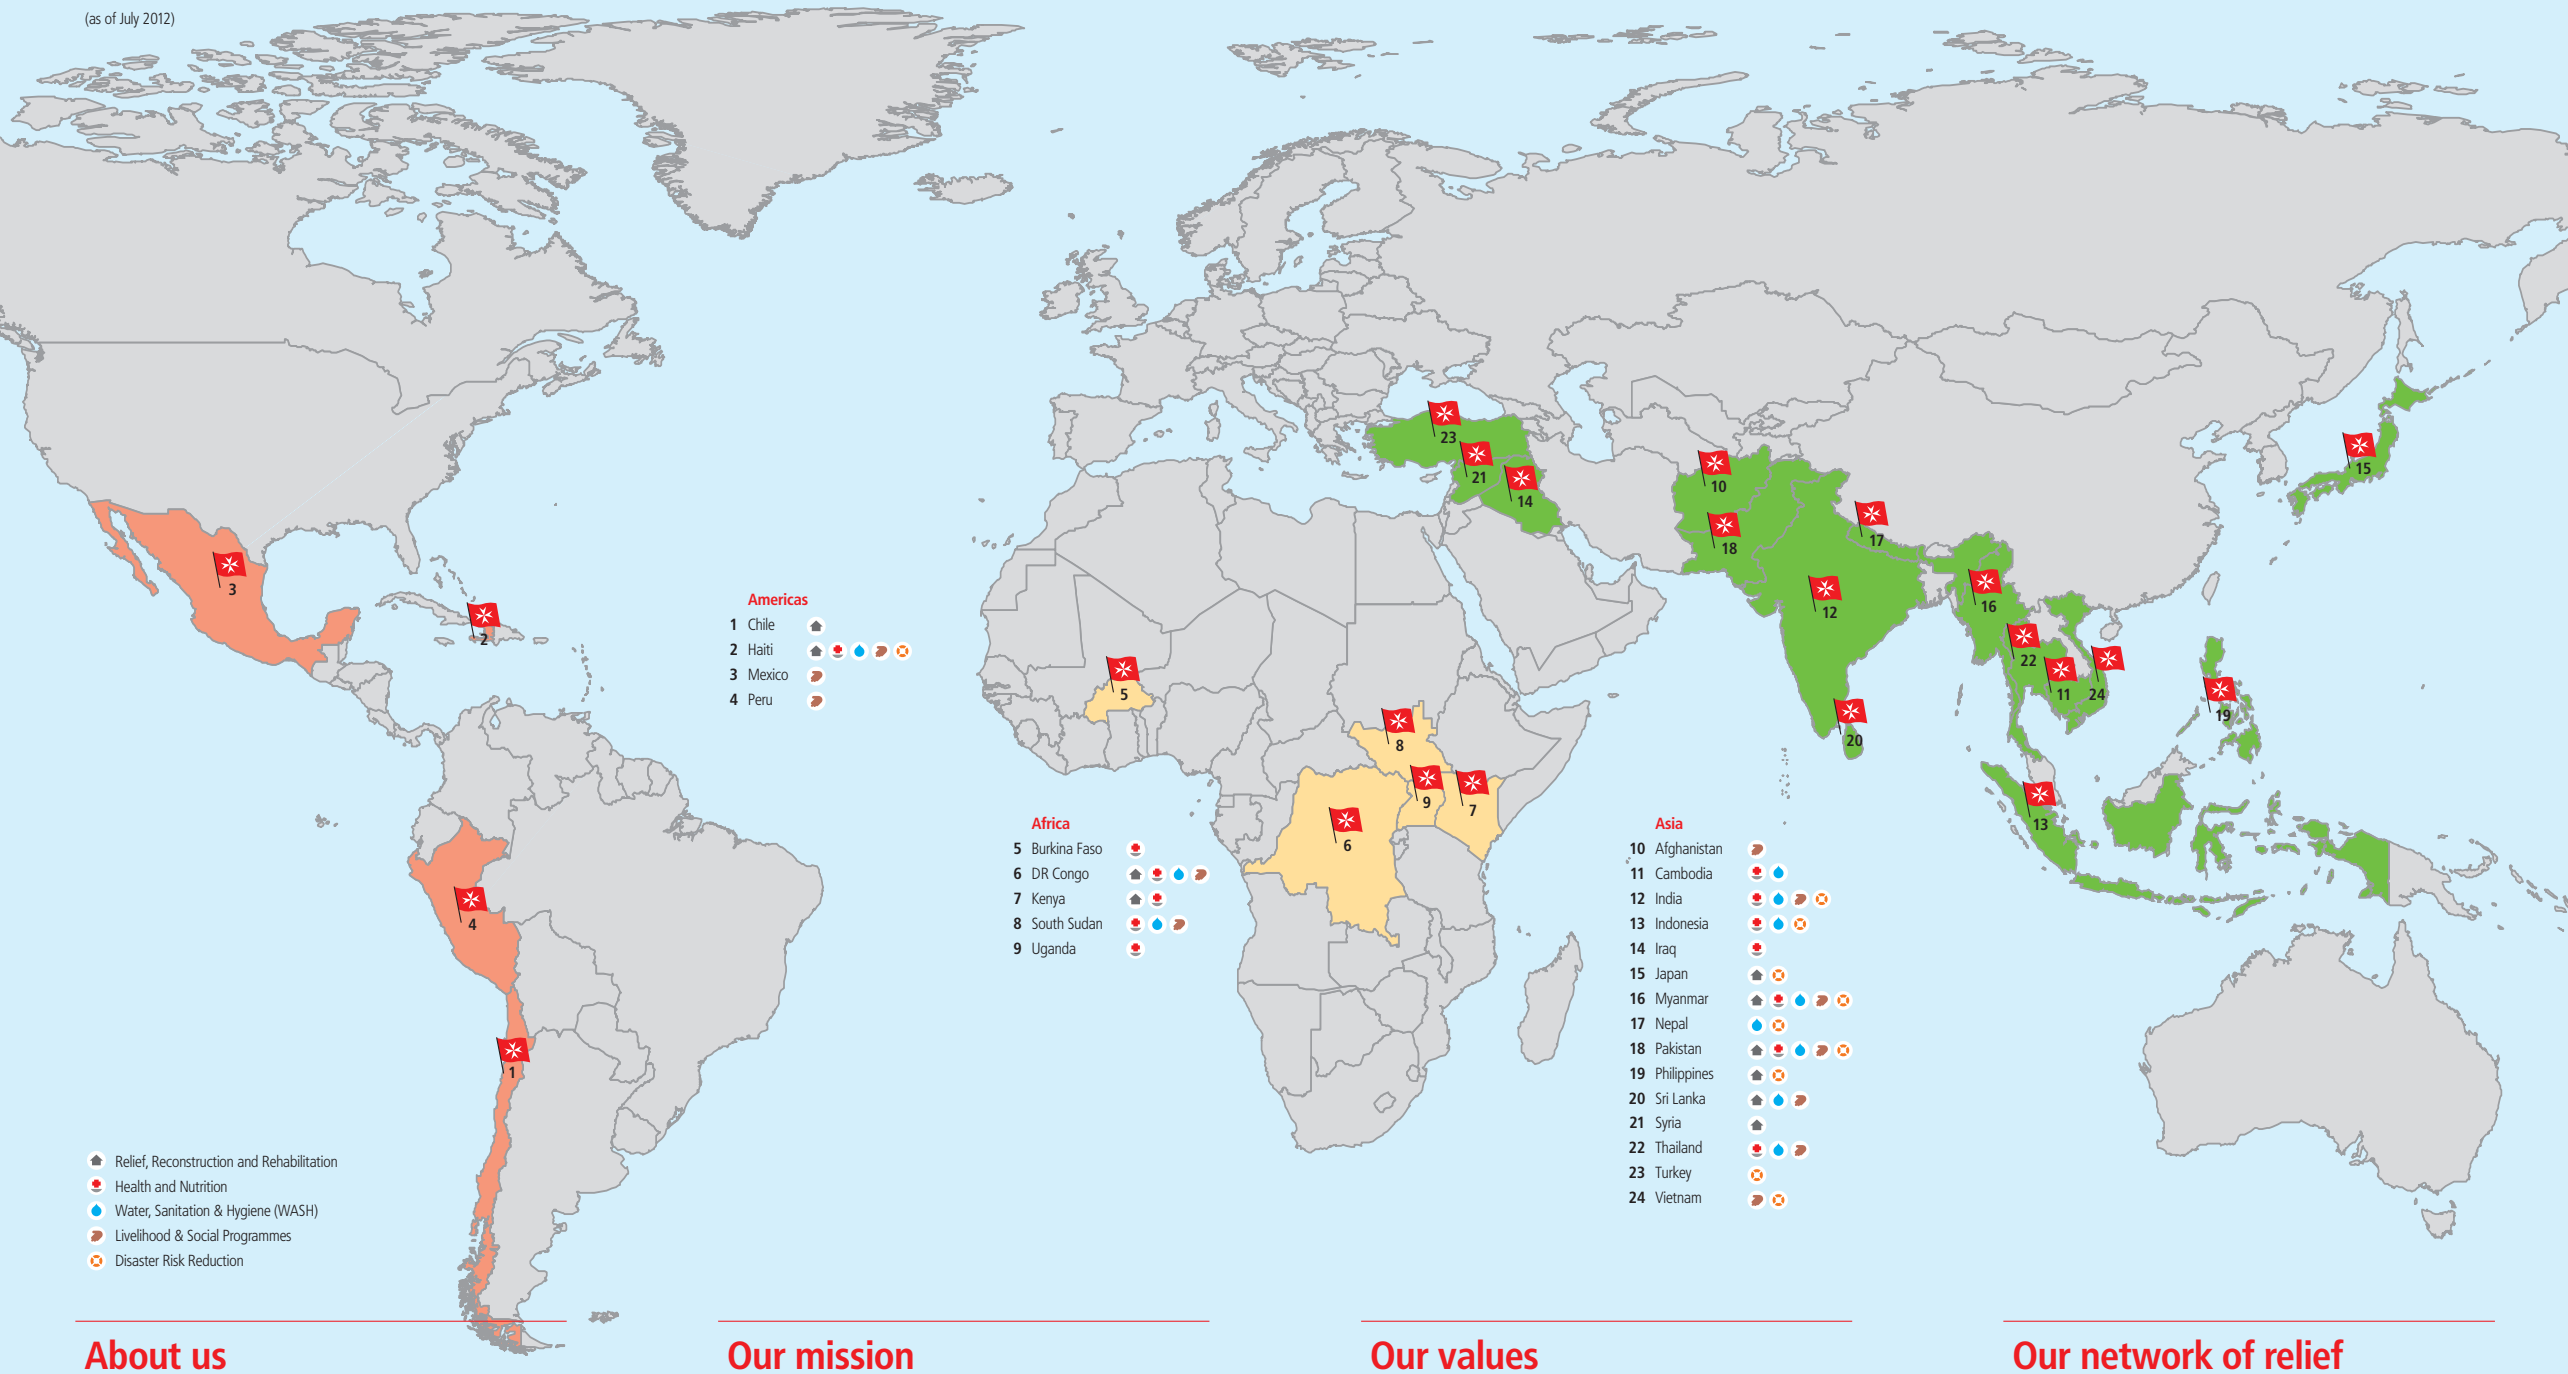
Malteser International – for a life in health and dignity

Malteser International
Order of Malta Worldwide Relief



About us

We are Malteser International, the Sovereign Order of Malta's worldwide relief agency for humanitarian aid. We are a non-governmental organisation with more than 50 years of experience in humanitarian aid, currently conducting around 100 projects in more than 20 countries in Africa, Asia and the Americas. 24 national associations and priories of the Order of Malta are Malteser International members.

Our mission

- Providing emergency relief after disasters, helping communities rebuild and recover;
- Establishing and promoting primary health care services and nutrition programmes;
- Ensuring access to drinking water, sanitation and hygiene (WASH);
- Helping people secure their livelihoods through social programmes that reduce vulnerability and poverty;
- Reducing the risks of disaster, especially at the community level.

Our values

We are committed to helping people in need in all parts of the world, without distinction of religion, race or political persuasion. Our work is guided by Christian values and based on the humanitarian principles of impartiality and independence. We adhere to internationally recognised guidelines and standards for humanitarian aid, and give highest priority to transparency and accountability.

Our network of relief

In cooperation with local, national and international partners and thanks to the support of public sponsors and private donors, as well as the worldwide network of the Order of Malta, we are able to deliver fast, effective and sustainable relief. More than 1,000 staff members work in our projects around the world to carry out Malteser International's mission: to make sure all people have a chance to live a healthy life with dignity.
